

BY THE KING
A PROCLAMATION
JOSEPH R.

WHEREAS the Fundamental Law of the Kingdom of Natal grants the Sovereign the sole prerogative to enact royal proclamations related to constitutional governance; and

WHEREAS the same Fundamental Law contains no provisions regarding the enactment of constitutional amendments;

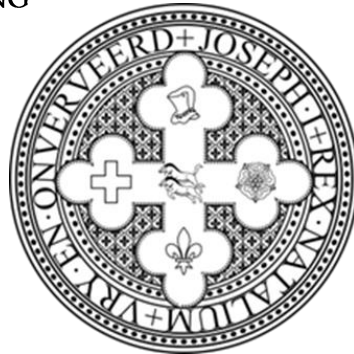

KNOW YE THAT WE do hereby proclaim that We, by Our right as Sovereign of this Realm, may enact amendments to the Fundamental Law of the Kingdom of Natal by means of royal proclamation, which may only be overturned by a unanimous vote of the Great Officers of State and the Koninklike Vergadering; and

FURTHERMORE, We do hereby enact a number of amendments to the Fundamental Law of the Kingdom of Natal, which shall be collectively known as the First Amendment to the Fundamental Law of the Kingdom of Natal.

Given at Our Court of St. Charles the Martyr's the 27th day of January in the year of Our Reign the Fourth, anno Domini Two-thousand and Eighteen.

GOD SAVE THE KING

His Grace Duke Bradley van Dullahan
Lord High Chancellor of Natal

FIRST AMENDMENT TO THE
FUNDAMENTAL LAW OF THE KINGDOM OF NATAL

Provision I.

Article III is amended to read as follows:

The Kingdom of Natal consists of the Principality of Oxford, which is ruled over by the Prince of Oxford; and the Provinces, which are ruled by dukes or duchesses, established by law. The Principality of Oxford consists of the County of Francilia and the City of Koninkswyk. The Provinces of the Kingdom of Natal are Albertschine, which consists of the Counties of Nassau and Rotterdam; New Bregne, which consists of Charlestown and New Essex; New Victoria, which consists of Richmond and Sint-Niklaas; and Urquhart, which consists of Levinton and New Brabant.

Provision II.

The following sentence shall be added to the end of Article X:

The Prince or Princess Regent, regardless of their possession or lack of possession of the title Prince of Oxford, be styled as His or Her Apostolic Highness.

Provision III.

The following sentence shall be added to the end of Article XXXII:

The eldest born son of the Sovereign shall hold the title of Prince of Oxford, and the style of Apostolic Highness, therefore holding the highest title of nobility within the Kingdom of Natal.
